DEVELOPMENT SECRETARIT.

Free grant of building timber and bamboos to Adi Dravidas and Adi Karnatakas.

READ—

Subject No. 42 of the Representative Assembly Proceedings of October 1926, praying that the timber required for building materials may be given free of cost to people of the Adi Dravida and Adi Karnataka Communities, for the construction of dwelling houses.

2. Letter No. D. 1859-26, dated the 11th October 1926, from the Conservator of Forests, stating that he is not in favour of free grants and that at least the cost incurred by the Department in raising the trees should be recovered, for the materials supplied.

ORDER No. D. 4337-46—Ft. 168-26-4, DATED 16TH DECEMBER 1926.

Government are of opinion that Adi Dravidas and Adi Karnatakas deserve special consideration, in view of their general poverty and low economic position and are therefore pleased to direct that, in cases where the Deputy Commissioner of the District concerned, considers that any Adi Dravida or Adi Karnataka family is in need of wood and bamboos for the construction of dwelling houses, he may order the free grant from District Forests, of unreserved wood and bamboos not exceeding Rs. 7-8-0 in value per family, calculated at the existing seigniorage rates, as in the case of grants for the reconstruction of houses destroyed by accidental fire.

2. Where the wood to be granted is from State Forests, the Deputy Commissioner may send his recommendation to the Conservator of Forests who will take the necessary action to comply with such a request.

3. In cases however, where the wood and bamboos are cut and delivered by the Forest Department, the actual expenses should be recovered from the grantees.
